UNUSUAL GIFTS FOR UNUSUAL PEOPLE FROM UNUSUAL BOOKS

A well-known advisor to one of our most popular Presidents wrote to me a few months back . . . after reading my book On the Wrong Side of Just about Everything but Right about It All . . . that every Christian in America ought to read it!

Well, the fact that only a few thousand Christians have bought it and read it points to the very reason for the book's title, On the Wrong Side of Just about Everything but Right about It All. That is, today's U.S.A. Christian simply cannot even contemplate being disabused of his unbiblical, unsound, mistaken beliefs, and that's precisely why the Apostle Paul wrote to the Galatian Christians:

AM I BECOME YOUR ENEMY BECAUSE I TELL YOU THE TRUTH? (Galatians 4:16)

No, it is not pleasant to be judged an enemy, to be ignored, and even shunned . . . not for misinterpreting scripture and misleading one's hearers and readers . . . but for just the opposite: preaching and teaching sound doctrine.

My book, its title printed in bold italic letters above, makes clear and plain the following: and much, much more.

✓ Today's little Israel has no link (relationship) whatsoever with the Israel of the Bible . . . except, perhaps, Revelation 3:9: ". . . the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie . . ."

✓ The Bible does not teach an any-moment, secret, pre-tribulation rapture (as do Scofield, LaHaye, and many others . . . Scofield dispensationalism has deceived millions.)

✓ The Bible does not teach two resurrections, and two raptures, the first and second of each separated by seven years. (Scofield dispensationalism, and its teachers, such as LaHaye, have deceived millions.)

✓ The Bible does not teach that the "taken" are God's people, while the "left behind" are the wicked. It is the reverse. LaHaye has sold millions of books deceiving multitudes.) Noah and his family were "left behind;" the wicked were "taken" in judgment. Matthew 24 supports this truth.

✓ Our Lord Jesus Christ is not coming again to establish a Jewish kingdom, sitting in the third temple in Jerusalem, killing lambs to atone for sin. Such is pure heresy, believed and taught by Scofield, Lindsey, LaHaye, Falwell, Hagee, and a host of others, misled by Scofield dispensationalism.

✓ The Bible does not teach that only the last half of the New Testament is for the church today . . . that Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, and the Acts are for the imagined "tribulation saints."

✓ There is not only one Israel in the Bible. There are seven. (Read and learn.)

✓ Our Lord Jesus Christ was crucified and buried on Wednesday, not Friday. (Incontrovertible proof. Read and learn.)

✓ Our nation's history and heritage are Christian, not "Judeo-Christian." (Read and learn.)

✓ The laughable and unscientific lies of evolutionism . . . disagreeing with my sixth grade teacher . . . snickering at Smithsonian Institution evolution exhibits.

✓ Dubya Bush's Iraq war blunder. Going to war based on lies. We've got no business over there. Christians—once protected—now eliminated. A trillion wasted; thousands killed and maimed.

OPEN LETTER TO MARK LEVIN

Mark,

Your conservative position on most issues, and your ability to enunciate them clearly and forcefully are very important, and must continue. I try to listen to the "Mark Levin Show" at least an hour every evening.

And I remember fondly the times Rush would call you for your legal knowledge, interpretations, and advice. You established yourself then as being a trustworthy legal authority.

So, if it were not for those years of respect for you I would not bother writing today. I regret that several items on the "Mark Levin Show" this week -- September 12 through 16--have been disconcerting, sufficiently so to require this "Open Letter."

Yesterday, Friday the 16th-- you stated that James Madison was the author of the Virginia Declaration of Rights, and that he was the "Father of the Constitution." Neither is correct.

Three weeks before the ratification of the Declaration of Independence on June 12, 1776, in Richmond, the older statesmen of the day, such as George Mason and Patrick Henry, drafted fifteen "Rights" to be a part of Virginia's new constitution. Madison, only 25, influenced and encouraged by Virginia's Baptist ministers under the leadership of John Leland, presented number sixteen, which, years later became the First Amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America.

As for the Constitution, it likewise was formulated by men older than Madison, such as Mason (with Madison's participation, of course), during the next thirteen years, and ratified in 1789.

But James Madison, during his second term as a Congressman from Virginia, and true to his interest in our Rights as citizens of a potentially tyrannical government, was successful in getting the Bill of Rights amended to the constitution. Thus, he is the "Father of the Bill of Rights."

Then, earlier this week, on Monday September 12, your tirade against those who believe there were reasons for 9/11 was disgusting. You derided those who believe Arabs' anger over our support for and arming of Israel could possibly be a factor in the terrorist events of September 11, 2001.

I need only quote the prophetic words of the late Haviv Schieber, a one-time co-terrorist with Menachem Begin and Yitzhak Shamir, and the first mayor of Beer-sheba: "On the day the U.S. Congress votes to stop sending money to Israel, on that day terrorism against Americans around the world will stop." (Google "Haviv Schieber" for more) I might add, Haviv Schieber was never wrong. (Note: Schieber died on December 31, 1987.)

I hope you will clarify these three matters on a future "Mark Levin Show."

Sincerely,

Dale Crowley Jr., Radio
Broadcaster, P.O. Box

ARKANSAS HOUND DOGS AND WASHINGTON'S CAPITOL HILL

My father, Dale Crowley, being a pastor in Jonesboro, Arkansas, during the depression, our little family was invited to dinner by every church member, most of whom were farmers. (Daddy was the target of a paid assassin; he made it possible for me to write this today; he was accused of murder; he sued William Randolph Hearst for libel; won! Google it all!) There would always be a bowl of poke "salad" on the table and skin-and-bones hound dogs in the yard--"bird dogs."

I fell in love with all those bird dogs. They were always glad to see us, gentle, happy, and affectionate; and they had long, floppy, funny ears.

A few years later, after those depression days experiences, in 1936, we moved to Washington, D.C. Our first, second, third, fifth, and sixth homes were on Capitol Hill.

I fell in love with Capitol Hill.

Many mornings, as I left home for school, I glanced to my left--westward--and saw the gleaming dome of the Capitol of the United States of America. Evenings, as the sun was setting in the west, we were literally in the shadow of the Capitol of the United States of America! Our home was only three blocks from that magnificent building!

Indeed, Capitol Hill was my brother Robert's and my playground and headquarters for our early physical, mental, and spiritual growth.

As the years passed by I even grew to feel that I had a God-given mission to carry on . . . even fight for . . . the Christian history, traditions, and heritage of Capitol Hill. And so it is that I named my occasional publication Capitol Hill Voice. You are reading it now.

Many years later, after returning from Japan, our daughter Celeste gave us a runty little Basset Hound. We named her "Snazzy." I soon discovered that these short-legged, long-eared, funny hound dogs were just like the hound dogs I had fallen in love with in Arkansas sixty years earlier. Snazzy gave birth to Duke, now fifteen years old.

Finally, only three years ago, we met a lady at the vet's who had brought her beautiful Basset Hound to the vet for an abortion. She was angry at her for getting pregnant! Even more, she was willing to get rid of her. She gave her to us!

Daisy (we renamed her) gave birth to five beautiful pure bred Basset Hound puppies, the last of which was born in front of our refrigerator. (I was taking her out for a walk break.) We kept

ARE WE STILL A CHRISTIAN NATION?

A wicked government forces Christian taxpayers, who don't believe evolutionism's fairy tales, to pay for printed matter and exhibits that lie to millions who visit our museums that evolution is a scientific fact. See guide to the right that asserts, "That is a fact."

A wicked government forces Christian taxpayers, who believe abortion is a sin against God and man, to pay for numerous welfare programs that advance abortion.

Two trigger-happy presidents, in order to be remembered as "wartime presidents," plunged our nation into needless wars that killed thousands of America's finest men and women, squandered hundreds of billions of dollars (trillions?!) on destruction, obligated the nation's resources to care for the wounded and maimed for decades, and sunk the economy into recession and depression.

George Washington said (in today's English), "You take care of your own problems. We will take care of ours, and mind our own business." We've got no business over there. War and waste 10,000 miles away? FOR WHAT?

9/11 CELEBRATION . . . WHAT A SHAMEFUL FARCE

Yes, a SHAMEFUL FARCE. To turn one of the most gruesome tragedies and failures in American history into a patriotic celebration is one of the most shameful farces I have witnessed in my lifetime. To me it was disgusting and revolting. To me it was more like a whimpering dog trying to make up for a bad mistake. There were various causes for 9/11, none of which our elite rulers were willing to admit.

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST COMMANDED "LAY UP FOR YOURSELVES TREASURES IN HEAVEN"

This is the Arakawaoki Church, one of the few vibrant, growing, evangelistic churches in Japan established by the missionary Crowleys in 1958. Pastor Suzuki is fourth from the left, second row. You helped buy the land for this church building in 1958 for $10,000. Today it is worth $1,000,000! A major "interstate" now runs 100 yards distant. To you who prayed and gave in 1958, "Thank you; God bless you." We have laid up "treasures in heaven." Pictured are our children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren in Christ.

WHAT IS EVOLUTION?

Most simply, evolution is a change in groups of living things over time, a process that connects all forms of life to one another. The evolution of living things has been occurring for billions of years and is responsible for the dazzling diversity of life on earth. That is a fact.

Straight Thinking, Plain Talk, and Bold Action . . .

For many years Iraq was a haven for Arab Christians. Thousands preached the Gospel, won others to Christ, and built churches. With all his faults, Saddam Hussein protected and helped advance Christianity in the Arab Moslem world.

But trigger-happy Dubya Bush put a stop to all that.

Thanks to Dubya, Moslems are now persecuting Christians, destroying their churches, and driving them out of Iraq by the thousands.

And we Christians were forced to pay billions to help him do it. And thousands of Americans – many Christians – lost their lives and limbs for it. And many Christians at home were forced to pay to have our fellow Arab Christians in Iraq martyred.

How do our “leaders” sleep at night?

The Republican presidential candidates’ debates have degenerated into nothing more than disgraceful, obsequious, servile, fawning exercises in who can best kowtow and genuflect before Israel . . . and who can be the most solicitous toward Israel (except, of course, Ron Paul). Shame on these sniveling pawns.

Greetings and Best Wishes From Dale Jr. & Mary Crowley

During this season of thanksgiving, giving, and receiving, let us rejoice for God’s great gift of His Son for our salvation. • The prophets predicted it: “Unto us a son is given.” • The blessed virgin Mary confirmed it: “My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior.” • The angel announced it: “For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior which is Christ the Lord.” • John the Baptist proclaimed it: “Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.” • Jesus Himself affirmed it:

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son.” • Jesus’ disciples preached it: “Neither is there salvation in any other.” • The Apostle Paul expounded it: “For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.” “Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift.”

CONCLUSION

How shall we conclude an article about Arkansas depression hound dogs and Washington’s Capitol Hill? Just this:

We should never forget to give thanks to God for the plants and animals of His creation that give us so much pleasure, for His presence and blessing upon the beginnings and builders of the United States of America, and for the early experiences of our childhood.

That first canine DNA that He created is still working! And His hand of awesome wisdom and power in the building of our nation is still manifest everywhere!
